

GROWING

What am I doing to develop and improve my spiritual gifts?

What am I doing to encourage and develop others?

How am I loving and encouraging the people I work with?

What am I shirking or procrastinating over?

To what extent do people feel like I am listening to them?

Are those to whom I am accountable sufficiently challenging me? Am I honest with them?

How well am I using my time to fulfill the current priorities God has given me?

To what extent do I and Oak Tree understand and pursue the same vision?

Am I aware of my strengths and weaknesses?

Is the way I am working balanced and sustainable? How would I know this?

How am I developing my understanding of God's call on my life?

What am I doing to pass on what I know and have experienced of God to the next generation?

LIVING OUT KINGDOM VALUES

How am I living an evangelistic lifestyle?

How balanced am I on the scale on words and works in my evangelism?

How am I doing on the worship, well being, witness balance?

What's my latest God story?

How well am I reflecting God's love for the poor in my life at the moment?

Who is on my prayer list for salvation? What chances have I had to witness to them lately? What went well/could have gone better?

What am I doing to build faith in a God for whom nothing is impossible?

What personal risks of faith have I taken recently?

Am I seeing people healed and set free?

Am I using my spiritual gifts in church meetings?

How am I aware of social justice issues and developing a love for the poor?

How am I encountering the presence of God in worship?

In what ways am I good news to my community?

'How well am I demonstrating the love and welcome of the Father to others?'

CORE GROUPS

'As iron sharpens iron'

Proverbs 27:17

Instilling the core values of the Kingdom into the core of life.