Autumn at Oak Tree

It is only the Holy Spirit who can truly transform our lives and bring radical changes in our communities. As Holy Spirit he manifests himself most fully in the lives of those not only holy because of Jesus work and death on the cross but in those working out what it means to be set apart (holy) for God in 21st century London.

God is deeply impressing on me the need to kill off my idols (anything more important to me than God - usually very subtle things), and to declare over every part of my life that Jesus is Lord! The promise of Joshua 3:5 is what he gave me in the summer for myself and Oak Tree to focus on at this time. "Consecrate yourselves, and tomorrow I will do amazing things amongst you." It is a promise based on a condition. Dealing with the condition is what our teaching shall explore this term.

Mark Aldridge
